

Bernd Rohrmann 2009 Workshop		Memo #4 FINAL STATUS 10-04-09
-------------------------------------	---	-------------------------------------

Workshop 2009 - April 17+18
"Physiological & socio-psychological risks from loud music in public venues"
INFO ABOUT PARTICIPANTS

The team for this workshop is now complete - here is information about who they are and what they do:

Name	Pic	Areas	Contact
Mary AINLEY Assoc. Prof., University of Melbourne		Lecturer in Psychology, especially Developmental Psychology. Extensive experience regarding younger people. Considerable communication skills.	maryda@ unimelb.edu.au
Mirko ANGELE Bistro manager		Manager, cafes and bistros (including the Potter Café in the Potter Museum on Melbourne University campus).	mangele@ bigpond.net.au
Jim BARBOUR Multimedia producer & lecturer, Swinburne University		Lecturing audio and multimedia subjects. Music producer and recording engineer. Research interests include aural perception. President of the Australian Forum for Acoustic Ecology (AFAE).	jbarbour@ swin.edu.au
Ross DINEEN PhD Audiology practice		Director of Dineen and Westcott Audiologists. Experienced audiologist, with specialist interests in aural rehabilitation, tinnitus assessment and management, and hearing conservation.	m_daud@ tpg.com.au

Nigel FRAYNE Director, Resonant Designs Pty		Acoustic designer and Soundscape composer. Board Chair of the World Forum for Acoustic Ecology and treasurer of the Australian Forum for Acoustic Ecology. Manifold international art & research work. Was bass player in rock groups.	nfrayne@ resonantdesigns.com
Rainer GUSKI Professor, Bochum University, Germany		Director of the Dept for Cognitive and Environmental Psychology. Very intense sound/noise research. For many years president of the German Noise Society. Also photographer and musician (vibraphone).	rainer.guski@ ruhr-uni-bochum.de
Alison HUNT-STURMAN Faculty Manager EHS, Environmental Health & Safety		Within the large Faculty of Medicine, Dentistry & Health Sciences the manager of all occupational and environmental health and safety issues, including noise. Running courses for personnel on these topics. Also active in sport.	asturman@ unimelb.edu.au
Jennifer MAKIN Research manager, Cancer Council Victoria		Psychologist; research and organizational work in a range of institutions. Very widely traveled and thereby familiar with cultural phenomena in many countries. Used to play music; also involved in dancing groups.	jenmakin@ gmail.com
Neil McLACHLAN Assoc. Prof. University of Melbourne		Rich professional experience in performing arts, music, aerospacees. Project to design new musical instrument ensembles via musico-logical, psychological and acoustical principles Created the famous bell complex. Was also dancer.	mcln@ unimelb.edu.au
Sonja PEDELL PhD Dept. of Information Systems		Research interests include socially oriented Software Engineering, usability and security, and innovative appliance design for the home. Worked two years as Product Manager for Siemens Audiological Technology. Loves yoga and dance.	sonjapedell@ yahoo.com

David RAWLINGS PhD, Lecturer, Univ. of Melbourne		Lecturer in Psychology, especially Personality Psychology. Special interest in music psychology and in humour studies. For many years involved in the Music, Auditory Cognition And Mind (MACAM) colloquium.	d.rawlings@unimelb.edu.au
Rika SHIMO PhD Lecturer and translator		Grew up in Tokyo. Japanese lecturer. Professional translations. On-going interest in language and intercultural relations, in how different people interact with each other, and how culture influences language.	rikashimo@gmail.com

Bernd ROHRMANN Prof. University of Melbourne		Main research areas: Environmental psychology, social-science risk research, environmental stressors, residential quality. Honorary member of TIEMS. Created the Melbourne Multidisciplinary Risk Research Roundtable ("2M3R") in 1999.	rohrmann@unimelb.edu.au
---	--	--	--------------------------------

Sophie GOHL Research assistant, Env. Psychol. Lab.		Holds biomedical science degree with Honours. Assistant for B.R.'s research project "Soundscapes in Public Places". Conducting campaigns regarding public health. Social skills enriched by manifold overseas travels.	sophiegohl@yahoo.com.au
---	---	---	--------------------------------

Contact:

Associated Professor B. ROHRMANN Univ. of Melbourne, Dept. of Psychology Vic 3010, AUSTRALIA
Phone +61 3 83446349 Fax +61 3 93476618 E-Mail rohrmann@unimelb.edu.au
WebSite: <http://www.rohrmannresearch.net>